

Newcomers Club of New Bern

March 2017

WELCOME TO SPRING (SORTA) AND SPRING FEVER!

What a roller coaster of weather we've had and welcome to Spring in North Carolina! A word of gardening warning, some of these warm days may entice you to the garden, but old hands advise to wait until tax day, April 15, to do any planting; freezing temperatures are still possible until then.

In the meantime, you're invited to our Newcomers' General Membership meeting, on Wednesday, March 8, at 7 p.m. at the Harrison Center, 311 Middle Street in downtown New Bern. Our speakers will be representatives from the U.S. Coast Guard Auxiliary Flotilla 20-4, who will describe their activities in our nearby waters.

Social Director Debbie Messinger asks that we save the date for this year's Spring Social: Saturday, May 20. We're doing something a little different this year. It will be a casual, picnic-type event at Lawson's Creek Park, from 2:30 until 8 p.m. Debbie will give more details at the March meeting. Mark your calendar and plan to join us for a fun time!

Those whose last names begin with S, T, U or V please bring a snack to the March meeting (for those of you paying close attention, that will get us back in alphabetical order.).

As we have already noted, if you are interested in serving the organization by being an activity leader, or on the Board, please let one of the Board members know. We are busy securing volunteers for next year's group. In addition, if you know of a local charity that would be a worthy recipient of our 50/50 proceeds, please pass their name along.

See you on March 8, and enjoy the Spring weather, whatever it may be!

Activity Groups

The Newcomers Club offers a variety of activity groups designed not only to provide you with new friends and fun, but also opportunities to learn, lead and most importantly, laugh! You may participate in as many activities as you desire. We also offer special activities throughout the year.

If you have a suggestion for a new activity, and you are willing to lead the group, please contact the Activity Director:

Linda Moore Home: (252) 631-1463
e-mail: vnlmoore11@gmail.com

Participation in any Newcomer Activity Group or Event requires that the prospective participant be a member in good standing in the Newcomers Club. For those events that are co-sponsored by both the Newcomers and the Alumni Group, prospective participants must be a member in good standing in either the Newcomers or the Alumni Group to be eligible to participate.

How do you sign up? First priority will be given to members who sign up at the monthly meeting that immediately precedes the scheduled activity. If the activity is not fully booked at that monthly meeting, members may contact activity group leaders to sign up by phone or email after the meeting. Following is a description of the activity groups currently available including any scheduled events/activities. There is also a calendar of events at the end of the newsletter as a quick reference.

We take breaks as needed. Routes will vary, allowing participants the chance to see different neighborhoods and the surrounding countryside

Requested Gear:

- 1) A working bicycle (brakes, gears) with adequate safety items – lights, reflectors
- 2) A Helmet is mandatory.
- 3) Carry adequate water (minimum – 1 pt. / 500 ml).
- 4) Casual clothing (shorts) and top with bright colors.
- 5) Air pumps and/or lights are an option.

Meeting Place:

A group email, including directions to a starting point, is sent out for weekend rides.

We would love to have you join us!

Book Group

The Book Club meets monthly at a member's home for conversation about a book, usually fiction selected by member suggestions. The group leaders spark discussion with a few comments and questions and the host provides light refreshments.

We are a group of avid readers who meet most often on the fourth Thursday of the month from 1-3pm in different member's houses to discuss a wide genre of books. The book list is compiled every six months from suggestions taken from and voted on by the members of the club. The books range from mysteries, to beach reads to classics and more. We are a group of very diverse people bringing to the table different morals, values, backgrounds, thus making for a truly lively discussion. Over light snacks, we learn about the authors and yes, discuss the books for 1 1/2 hours approximately.

Driving directions are emailed to all book club members.

BUNCO

The goal is to have fun and meet new people. Bunco is a simple, no skill, dice game. You sit at a table of four with a partner across from you; then the partners rotate as the game continues. So this game is a great way to meet people in a small group. If you can toss three dice and recognize the numbers on the dice, then you can play this game! Each month we have 12 or 16 participants. Each time you participate, the cost is $5.00 per person with all money paid out as prizes at the end of that evening (please bring correct change). Host will provide dessert. Other participants please bring an appetizer for approx 8-10 people to be shared PLUS beverage of your choice that you would like to personally drink that evening. Participants will be notified by e-mail of the location prior to the event. Activity is held the 3rd Wednesday of the month. Advance sign-up is required and is offered at the monthly New Bern Newcomer meeting. If space is still available after the meeting sign-up, then an email is sent to members who have expressed interest in Bunco.

Crafters

We meet every 3rd Tuesday 10-12 Noon. We will ask for volunteers to host the activity each month. We will send out an email prior to each activity with the location and any other required information. The above schedule is different due to holidays and special activities so we are sorry for any confusion. The cost for the activity will be determined by the craft chosen. Any questions please contact us. We are looking forward to meeting new members and having a great year.

Dining In

Comments:

- Sharing a meal together is a great way to meet new members. While visiting each others homes from January through April, eight newcomers – singles or couples – share experiences and enjoy a delicious meal to which they all contribute a dish.
 - Once you have signed up, we organize the list such that the groups rotate and you eat with new folks each month.
 - Over the four scheduled Dining-In events, each participant will have a chance to host one dinner and then take turns bringing an appetizer, soup/salad or a dessert to the other dinners.
 - The hosts of the month will communicate with the other participants in their group to determine an evening that is suitable for all. There will be a suggested theme for each month (e.g. chicken, pork, ethnic meal etc.)
 - If you cannot commit to hosting, you may sign up as an alternate.
 - There is no fee to join the Dining-in group, but you must be a paid up member of the Newcomers Club.

- The dining in groups for January through April have now been sent out to all those who signed up and you should have heard from your host with dates for the January dinner. Please note that most communication from New Bern Newcomers activities is through email so it is important to check your emails regularly if you have signed up for ANY activities.

You are still welcome to sign up as a substitute, in case any of our regular participants are unavailable for any particular month. This is likely to happen so please do contact me to sign up.

If you are forced to cancel after agreeing to a date for dinner, kindly let the host or myself know as soon as possible so one of the substitutes can be invited to take your place.

If you would like to be added to the list please contact Carol Frysiek at CarolFrysiek@gmail.com or phone 252-675-5442

Golf

Newcomers / Alumni Golf is based on the premise that the game should be fun. Making friends is paramount; proficiency is immaterial. We welcome all skill levels. Rules are what each player wants them to be. Some players adhere to the stricter rules of the USGA, while others follow the lax GW rules -- count every stroke that you like. If you don't like it, don't count it; or finally, don't count anything and pick up your ball any time you wish!

We schedule a golf outing once a month, normally on a Wednesday or Thursday, and play 12 months of the year. We travel to courses in the New Bern area and try to keep within a one-hour drive. We also arrange carpooling for the out-of-New Bern trips. If this sounds like something you would enjoy, come join us. You will have a good time! For additional information or reservations, contact:

Outdoor Adventure

Throughout the September – May season, we try to choose outdoor activities that are appealing to everyone. The adventures are not competitive in nature. The adventures have included: kayaking/ canoeing, hiking, kite flying, bicycle riding, and boat rides. We either bring our lunch or stop by a nearby restaurant.

We don't have participants sign up unless it is an activity that must be more stringent in head count. Our slogan is “No sign-up, just show up at the event,” and rain-out is constituted by already raining or bad outlook during the time of the adventure.

The trip to Norfolk is a definite and it is no longer tentative. This is a joint trip with the Outdoor Adventure and the Boaters Groups. Details including hotels and pricing, event schedules and pricing, and trip details are included in the event flyer <http://newbernnewcomers.org/news/norfolk.pdf>.

Wine Socials

The Wine Social Group is for everyone, not just wine drinkers!

Each couple/single who signs up is asked to bring a bottle of wine, or whatever they would like to drink, and an hors d'oeuvre to share with everyone.

Hosting a party is easy! Wine Socials are held on the third Saturday of each month. The activity chairman will:

Notify everyone who signed up at the General Meeting by email of the date

Receive the RSVPs of those that plan on attending

Brings the wine glasses to the host's home

Supplies the name tags.

The party attendees bring the food and beverages—the host supplies the house! If you would like to limit the party to a certain number of people, just notify the activity leader.

The Wine Social activity is open to all paid members of the Newcomers Club of New Bern only.

Come join us for food, drink, and friendship no knowledge of wine is required!
